For the use of additional services you may have to accept additional terms and conditions as notified to you when you are ordering or using such services. You are advised to print or download and keep a copy of these Terms of Use for future reference. You can always view the current Terms of Use on our Website.

2.2. Depending on the type of Redde Account you have, additional terms and conditions may apply and will be communicated to you at the appropriate time.

Your Redde Account

3.1. As a merchant, your Redde account allows you to receive payments for your goods and services. You can use the Redde portal to periodically sweep your money into your bank account, Mobile money account, or any other account that is permitted under the laws of Ghana.

Opening Your Redde Account

4.1. In order to use our payment services you must first create a Redde Account by registering your details on our Website or through our Mobile App. As part of the signup process you will need to accept these Terms of Use and our Privacy Policy and you must have legal capacity to accept the same. If you order additional services, you may be asked to accept additional terms and conditions.

4.2. You must be 18 years or older to use our services and by creating a Redde Account you declare that you are 18 years or older. This does not apply to products for which we set a different age limit. We may require at any time that you provide evidence of your age.

4.3. You may only create one Redde Account per email address and phone number unless we explicitly approve otherwise.

4.4. You fully agree that all information you provide during the signup process or any time thereafter must be accurate and truthful.

Maintaining Your Redde Account

5.1. You must ensure that the information recorded on your Redde Account is always accurate and up to date and we shall not be liable for any loss arising out of your failure to do so. We may ask you at any time to confirm the accuracy of your information or to provide documents or other evidence.

5.2. We may contact you by e-mail, phone number or both with information or notices regarding your Redde Account. It is your responsibility to regularly check the proper functioning of your email account or other methods of communication that you have registered with your Redde Account and to retrieve and read messages relating to your Redde Account promptly. We shall not be liable for any loss arising out of your failure to do so.

5.3. Payments received are displayed in your online transactions history. Each transaction is given a unique transaction ID and shown in the transaction history. You should quote this transaction ID when communicating with us about a particular transaction. You should check your Redde Account transaction history regularly. You should report any irregularities or clarify any questions you have as soon as possible by contacting Customer Service.

Keeping Your Redde Account Safe

6.1. You must take all reasonable steps to keep your Redde Account password and security details safe at all times and never disclose it to anyone. Our personnel will never ask you to provide your password or security details to us or to a third party. Any message you receive or website you visit that asks for your password, other than the Redde Website, should be reported to us. If you are in doubt whether a website is genuine, you should contact Customer Service. It is advisable to change your password regularly (at least every three (3) to six (6) months) in order to reduce the risk of a security breach in relation to your Redde Account. We also advise you not to choose a password that is easily guessed from information someone might know or gather about you or a password that has a meaning. You must never allow anyone to access your Redde Account or watch you accessing your Redde Account.

6.2. If you have any indication or suspicion of your Redde Account, login details, password or other security feature being lost, stolen, misappropriated, used without authorisation or otherwise compromised, you are advised to change your password. You must contact Customer Service without undue delay on becoming aware of any loss, theft, misappropriation or unauthorised use of your Redde Account, login details, password or other security features. Any undue delay in notifying us may not only affect the security of your Redde Account but may result in you being liable for any losses as a result. If you suspect that your Redde Account was accessed by someone else, you should also contact the police and report the incident.

6.3. We may suspend your Redde Account or otherwise restrict its functionality on reasonable grounds relating to the security of the Redde Account or any of its security features or if we reasonably suspect that an unauthorised or fraudulent use of your Redde Account has occurred or that any of its security features have been compromised. We will notify you of any suspension or restriction and of the reasons for such suspension or restriction in advance or, where we are unable to do so, immediately after the suspension or restriction has been imposed, unless notifying you would be unlawful or compromise our reasonable security interests. We will lift the suspension and/or the restriction as soon as practicable after the reasons for the suspension and/or restriction have ceased to exist.

6.4. You must take all reasonable care to ensure that your e-mail account(s) are secure and only accessed by you, as your e-mail address may be used to reset passwords or to communicate with you about the security of your Redde Account. In case any of the e-mail addresses registered with your Redde Accounts are compromised, you should without undue delay after becoming aware of this contact Customer Service and also contact your e-mail service provider.

6.5. Irrespective of whether you are using a public, a shared or your own computer to access your Redde Account, you must always ensure that your login details are not stored by the browser or cached or otherwise recorded. You should never use any functionality that allows login details or passwords to be stored by the computer you are using.

6.6. Additional products or services you use may have additional security requirements and you must familiarise yourself with those as notified to you.

We will report any suspicious activity to the relevant law enforcement agency. You are prohibited from using your Redde Account in an attempt to abuse, exploit or circumvent the usage restrictions imposed by a merchant on the services it provides.
